

Practice Quiz #8

Nomen: Answer Key

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

Please decline the following nouns:

Ex. opus, operis, n. - work, accomplishment

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	opus	opera
Genitive	operis	operum
Dative	operi	operibus
Accusative	opus	opera
Ablative	opere	operibus

Ex. ratio, rationis, f. - reason

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	ratio	rationes
Genitive	rationis	rationum
Dative	rationi	rationibus
Accusative	rationem	rationes
Ablative	ratione	rationibus

Section 2: Vocabulary

Please translate the following Latin forms into English:

1. bibo, bibere: to drink
2. reddo, reddere: to return/give back
3. accipio, accipere: to accept
4. servo, servare: to save
5. moneo, monere: to warn

6. conicio, conicere: to hurl

Please translate the following English words into Latin:

7. new: novus-a-um

8. outside: extra + accusative

9. to wait for: expecto, expectare

10. night: nox, noctis, f.

11. small: parvus-a-um

12. wife: uxor, uxoris, f.

13. dead: mortuus-a-um

Section 3: Translation

Please translate into idiomatic English:

1. Polyphemus, gigans ingens, caecus est. Sed comites Troianorum in litore audire potest, et eos¹ occidere cupit.

Polyphemus, a huge giant, is blind. But he is able to hear the comrades of the Trojans on the shore, and he wants to kill them.

2. gigans saxa ingentia tollit, et ad naves Aeneae conicit. Troiani celeriter in mare navigant, sed multi viri pereunt.

The giant lifts up huge rocks, and hurls [them] at the ships of Aeneas. The Trojans quickly sail into the sea, but many men perish.

¹ eos - them

3. Aeneas in aqua corpora mortua virorum videt, et flet.

Aeneas sees the dead bodies of men in the water, and he weeps.

Vocabulary

Aeneas, -ae, m. - Aeneas aqua, -ae, f. - water caecus, -a, -um - blind comes, comitis, m. - companion corpus, corporis, n. - body cupio, cupere - to want + infinitive fleo, flere - to cry, weep gigas, gigantis, m. - giant ingens, ingentis - huge, big

Vocabulary

litus, litoris, n. - shore mare, maris, n. - sea navis, navis, f. - ship occido, occidere - to kill saxum, -i, n. - rock tollo, tollere - to lift up, pick up Troianus, -i, m. - Trojan (person) vir, viri, m. - man